TUESDAY :

The New York Journal of Commerce and the Tribune each charge the friends of Fillmore with making alliances with the opposite parties. The Journal charges that the Fillmore men are to give the electoral vote of Peunevlvania to Premont in return for the State officers to be elected on the 1th t.lt .- Commonwealth.

Aud we have not a shadow of doubt of the truth of the assertion. We are strengthened in this conviction by a conversation with a Kentucky old-line Whig, who left Kentucky three months ago a strong l'illmore man, and has been residing in New York ever since. He informed us that the Fillmore party in New York is utterly rotten-that two-thirds of even the Silver Gray Whige are abolitionists, and one every rlay descring to the Fremont party. We says that the only men who will vote for Fillmore in New York are the fools and lauatics of the Know Nothing party, who are all abolitionists, but whose ferocious hate of foreigners and Catholics induces them to waive the abolition question for the present, and vote for Fillmore upon the Know No-

He con-Southern men. He foun I them, without exception, occupying the same position on the slavery question with the Democrats of Kentucky.

And these are the men whom the Kentucky Know Nothings are attempting to prostrate. And these Fremont Abalitiouists are the men whom the Louisville Journal advises Northern Kuow Nothings to vote for.

Gov FLOYD'S SPEECH .- Gav. Floyd delivered a speech at the New York Merchant's Exchange hast Thursday. The Herald says the point of it was that he declared himself ready to cast the electoral vote of Virginia for Fillmore, if he ould thereby defeat the Republican candidate. Journal.

It is a remarkable truth, that the Denneration party, both North and South, all speak with one vice on this subject; and like Gov. Floyd would mont elected. On the other hand, however, be added to the Union! carly the whole mass of the Fillmore party in the North, and a very large number of them the South, avow their preference for Fremont over Buchanan, while their organ in Kentucky, the Louisville Journal, openly advocates the election of the Abolitionist Morton, for Governor of Indiana, over that sterling untional man and friend of the South, A. P. Willard. The lack of true patriotism on the part of the Fallmore party is clearly illustrated in this respect. Let the South mark it.

SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY .- It seems to be the mission of the political knaves and asses throughout Kentucky, to make as much noise over this toul abolitionism and their treasonable recreand to the South. The Louisville Journal, the Frankfort Commonwealth, and the Fillmore prators (verywhere, are groaning over "Squatter Sovereignty," and charging the Democratic Fremont party have no candidate for Canal Comparty with being in favor of it.

There is not a man who makes such a charge, There is no one who would make it, but an igno

We would stake our existence that the above Etsiement is a lie-an out-and-out, unmitigated lie. If tienster ever was a freesoiler, it was when he was a Whig. Nearly all Northern Whigs were and are abolitiouists. But when Heister turned Liemocrat (if there is such a man and he ever slid turn) he was, as a matter of course, compelled to give up his abolitionism.

Soon after the passage of the Kansas bill repealing the Missouri Compromise, the Georgia Legislature, irrespective of party, passed unanimounly, the following resolution.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—The attendance at the exhibition was larger last night than any even. ing since the opening night. There has been many new attractions added to the exhibition in the last few days, and the interest increases daily. George Blanchard's display near the entrance attracts considerable attention. 'Blanchard' lit up with gas is admired by all.

D. O'Hare: it was made at the manufactor of Mr. O'Hare, by two of his workmen-Mr J. P. Mayle and Mr. J. C. Keen. The mechanical execution is in the finest style of workmanship, while the ornamenting is elaborate and very Nashville, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati at par. tasteful. It is called a "Bureau Trunk," and

We think the workmanship displayed in getting up this trunk cannot be excelled, and reflects great credit on the two young mechanics who made it.

We next noticed a 'llove of a bonnet' manu factured by Madame Agnes Sorel, Market street. In the same case can be seen a superb head-dress for cost the city of New York something like $100, ladies' wear. The bonnet and head-rigging were much admired. A good specimen of brass casting, from the foundry of Glover, Ainslie & Cochran, and a cast iron teapol and waiter, cast in one piece, by Charles Clark and James Bryant, complete this table.

James B. Slaughter, and Ormeby, Blair & Co J. E. Priest contributes a pair of polished steel skates, made by himself.

In looking around we find a rare collection of plants and flowers by that accomplished florist. Henry Nantz, to whose generosity and taste the Institute has often been Indebted for elegant floral contributions. Two fancy boxes in relieve work, by Mrs. G. R. Hand, are very pretty; so also are two boquets of hair, by B. Hastell.

A toilet case made by Mise Paulina Goldberg,

It is greatly feared that the late frosts of which we have accounts from most of the tobacco growing country, will seriously injure the crop, and consequently raise the price of that staple onsiderably. The estimates of the crop in the early part of the season pointed to an increase of some 50 to 60 per cent. npon the crop of the previous year, but the receipts, as seen, are only slightly in excess of those of 1854-5. This has the hearty concurrence of France, and these resulted mainly from the prevalence of nnfavor-rumors had depressed the English funds. resulted mainly from the prevalence of unfavorable weather at the usual time of handling and prizing, which delayed the preparation for market until a period when the planters were compelled to turn their attention to arrangements for another crop; and when the necessary preparations had been completed, the fall of water in the tributary streams prevented the forwarding of a considerable portion of the crop, the quantity remaining in the interior being estimated at 18,000 to 25,000 bhds. Dealers and shippers, therefore, have been disappointed in their expectation of materially increased receipts, and have also been disapponted in the character of the crop, the quality proving much below the ex-nected average. With respect to the growing crop, it seems to be generally conceded that it must be materially short of the product of last year, as the planting, n consequence of unfavorable weather, was demany sections continued drought prevented the road swindlers, now in the custody of the city official.
